Starting time for tonight's wrestling matches with Stanford in Spartan gym is 7:30 o'clock. The time has been moved up half an hour because of a freshman-junior varsity preliminary meet.

DG's, PiKA's Top List Of Greek Grade Getters

Delta Gamma sorority topped the list of all SJS Greek houses on the scholastic list for fall quarter, with a 1.76 average. Pi Kappa Alpha led the fraternity division with a 1.47 average.

The figures were released yesterday from the offices of Associate Deans of Students Helen Dimmick and Robert S. Martin.

The DG average tops the all-college average of 1.50, but the PiKA's average fell slightly under.

Grade average for all men is 1.45 and for all women 1.56.

The fraternities dropped down in their average grade point producing 1.36, compared to 1.53 for last spring. The sororities posted a 1.61. Six sororities topped the all-women's average and nine beat the all-college average.

The all-college average was computed on the basis of 25 per cent of all regularly enrolled undergraduate students, according to the release.

Pi Kappa Alpha dropped a fraction of a point, but still came up to grasp first place, Sigma Pi, which held first place after last spring quarter with a 1.64 average, dropped to 13th place. "Dark Horse" Sigma Nu ranks second after being in the cellar after the spring averages with a 1.24.

Fraternity averages in order are: Pi Kappa Alpha, 1.47; Sigma Nu, 1.42; Delta Upsilon, 1.41; Alpha Tau Omega, 1.39; Kappa Alpha, 1.39; Sigma Chi, 1.37; Delta Sigma Phi, 1.35; Kappa Tau, 1.33.

Lambda Chi Alpha, 1.32; Phi Sigma Kappa, 1.32; Theta Chi, 1.31; Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 1.31; Sigma Pi, 1.27, and Theta Xi, 1.18.

Ties between fraternities were broken by carrying out figures to three places.

First in sorority standing is Delta Gamma with a 1.76 average. Second place went to Kappa Kappa Gamma with 1.71 and third to Alpha Phi with 1.67. Fourth, Kappa Alpha Theta with 1.66; fifth, Alpha Omicron Pi, 1.64; sixth, Sigma Kappa, 1.60.

Seventh, Gamma Phi Beta and Alpha Chi Omega, 1.53; eighth, Delta Zeta, 1.52; and Chi Omega, 1.40.

Non-Residents May Pay $180

Should a bill now before the California Legislature become law, out-of-state students at San Jose State will have to pay tuition charges of $180 a semester.

The bill, introduced yesterday by Assemblyman Joseph C. Shell, Republican, of Los Angeles, is obviously an attempt to ease the state's overburdened college system.

SJS Registrar Leslie W. Rosa, commenting upon the possible effect of the measure, said that enrollment figures for the total number of out-of-state students are not yet available for winter quarter, but during the spring quarter there were 262 students attending SJS from other states, 73 from the territories of Alaska and Hawaii, and 377 foreign students.

Group Names New Ass'n. Yell Leader

Gary Graham was named to replace Terry Haycock as assistant yell leader at the rally executive committee meeting yesterday. Haycock decided to step down until he increased his grade point average. Shunji Ito, committee chairman, said.

Five Students Have Applied For Elections

Five SJS students have signed applications to run in the ASB elections Feb. 11.

The largest turnout has been two for the Junior class vice presidency, followed by one each for Freshman and Sophomore Student Council representative, and one for male Junior Student Court justice.

Applications for the 15 available offices close at 4 p.m. tomorrow in the ASB office in the Student Union.

"There are lots of different offices open," said Art Lund, ASB president. "If the people who gripe about the way things are done would run for office, we'd get somewhere."

"Student government is an integral part of college life, and I'd like to see more people interested in it. So far, it's just like the weather. People complain, but don't do anything about it," he said.

Offices up for re-election are: All four sophomore class officers.

Male junior Student Court justice.

Senior Student Council representative for half year term.

Freshman Student Council representative for a half year term.

Junior Student Council representative for a full year term.

Sophomore Student Council representative for a full year term.

Freshman Student Council representative for a full year term.

Plaque for Blood

San Jose Elks Club has donated a plaque to be awarded to the state college contributing the most blood each year.

A committee, consisting of Dean Stanley C. Benz, ASB President Art Lund, Pat Seawall and Louise Wester, campus co-chairmen of the current blood drive, and Mrs. Hemphill of the State Blood Bank Center, will decide how this plaque will be awarded.

Student Council OK's Game Levy

The Student Council yesterday afternoon approved for the remainder of the school year the controversial Santa Clara University basketball contract which calls for a 50 cent admission charge to games between the two teams.

The council qualified its unanimous decision, however, by discussing possibilities for studying the contract and discarding it in the future. Two more games with the University are slated to be played this season on the 50 cent fee basis.

Athletic Director Bill Hubbard appeared before the council and asserted that if SJS refused to pay the charge, the California Basketball League might break up.

"Santa Clara probably will not play us unless we do pay the charge," Hubbard said. "They believe it is not fair for us to monopolize Civic Auditorium with our greater student body."

The athletic director claimed that the break-up of an earlier league that pitted SJS against the Broncos came over a similar "simple" disagreement—only in eligibility rules.

"Actually, we feel that an ASB card entitles a student to a number of things. If he wants to see attractions over and above those, he should pay for them," Hubbard said.

A request that the fee be continued was submitted, according to an ASB request, with the Physical Education Department's budget last spring, according to Hubbard. But apparently it never reached the council.

Included in the same letter was a request for permission to make a small charge for Friday's boxing matches, to help cover a $1000 guarantee. Hubbard asked that, because match-time is so near, the charge be forgotten. The council turned thumbs-down on the plan to charge admission to the bouts.

Money from the Santa Clara-SJS game is given to the "home team." Don Hubbard, representative-at-large to the council, noted in bringing the issue before the group.

The two colleges alternate the years in which they receive the proceeds of two games of the three.

Pigeon Promises No Snow Today

"It snowed in San Bruno yesterday," he claimed, looking up from the UP wire dispatch.

"Snowed," we corrected. "Anyway, it's so seldom it happens and it won't today, because it will be clear, temperature 50-54, gentle wind and also fair tomorrow."

May Bush Gets Ol' Brush-Off For Date With Lonesome 'Cat'

Polecat will definitely not end up going to Wintermist with May Bush.

Despite a preponderance of letters from such gals as Madam X, Martha Washington and the (ever-popular) May Bush, Polecat will date a lucky girl whose real name appears on her letter, Dick Garvin, MC of the KLOK Spartan Coffee Date says.

"Actually we don't really care what they sign the letters with," Garvin explains.

"All we want is money. Cash from the contest is going to the March of Dimes."

Presently the Coffee Date is running behind competing Custer's Caravan, Garvin bemoans.

Custer's contestants are sending in dollars. All I get are dimes."

So far the Polecat contest has brought in between thirty and forty dollars, Garvin estimates.

He says the May Bushes, Madam X's and Martha Washingtons are out of luck. Their entries will be tossed out.

DR. RICHARD W. KILBY

Dr. Kilby Plans Tour to India

Dr. Richard W. Kilby, associate professor of psychology, received word from the U.S. Government Tuesday that he has been awarded a Fulbright Lectureship to India. He will lecture in the field of psychology at the Government Training College in Jullundur, near the Himalayas, in the northwestern part of India.

Since this appointment is for nine months starting Oct. 1, Dr. Kilby will take a year's leave from San Jose State College. He plans to visit various parts of the world enroute.

Along with his lecture duties, Dr. Kilby will assist with the Master Degree program recently instituted at the college.

Jan. 31 Is Last Day Vets May Count Service Toward Some State Benefits

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 19 (UP)—Gov. Goodwin J. Knight today set Jan. 31, 1955, as the last day on which veterans may count service in the armed forces toward eligibility for certain state veterans' benefits.

After that date, the governor said, persons entering the services shall not be considered California veterans for the purposes of obtaining farm and home loans, educational assistance, civil service preference, and tax exemption.

The action brought state statutes in line with a recent federal change which terminated the Federal GI Bill of Rights.

The termination applies only to those persons accruing active duty time or entering the armed forces after the cut-off date and does not affect veterans already eligible.

EISENHOWER COMMENTS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19 (UP)—President Eisenhower said today that at this stage the Hammarstrand free-the-fliers mission to Red China is neither a success nor failure and he would like to see the United Nations try to use its good offices to arrange a cease-fire between the warring Chinese Reds and the Chinese Nationalists.

BILLS INTRODUCED

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 19 (UP)—Bills introduced in the Legislature today included one creating a 240-bed neuropsychiatric clinic in connection with the UCLA Medical School. The state budget contains $5,700,000 for construction.

CIVIL RIGHTS PROGRAM

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19 (UP)—A 10-point program of civil rights legislation will be introduced in Congress within a week. Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey said the measures will include, among others, bills providing for equal opportunity in employment and outlawing the poll tax and all segregation in interstate transportation.

COURT RULES ON REDS

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 19 (UP)—An employer may fire a known Communist without violating a union contract, according to a controversial 4-3 decision of the California Supreme Court.

The majority ruling reversed two lower court decisions which earlier upheld an arbitration award ordering an employer to re-hire an employee.

TRADE WITH RUSSIA

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19 (UP)—President Eisenhower told his news conference today that testimony by Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson favoring an increase in non-war goods trade with Iron Curtain countries did not carry his considered approval.

Editorial

The Little Train that Didn't

The Student Council took the right track yesterday afternoon in discussing the 50-cent charge for games with Santa Clara but ran out of steam just short of home station.

A major selling point for approving the deal for the remainder of this year was that it could be looked into and changed, if advisable, next year. The council went along with that idea but then, although individual members may have made mental notations of their own on the subject, the council did nothing official toward getting a research project rolling.

We think it should have: too many Spartans are asking too many questions which should be answered with more thoroughness than the one member who was working on the matter could be expected to supply. Above all, the issue calls for a pow-wow with the other side.

Every arrangement left standing for as long as this one apparently has can use a little dusting off to make sure that it still fits the situation. And when it's been exposed to day light, let's make sure that everybody gets a good look at it.

Ike Expresses Optimism As Term Reaches Half

By MERRIMAN SMITH
I.P. White House Reporter
WASHINGTON, Jan. 19 (UP)—President Eisenhower observed the end of his first two years in the White House today with the first filmed presidential news conference in history and an optimistic statement on the world outlook.

Looking little the worse for the wear after two years in the world's toughest job, Mr. Eisenhower said confidently that the national economy is good and the foreign outlook is improving, but not easy.

The President—who seemed to be in a serious frame of mind and evidencing some concern over the troubled Far East situation—was reminded that tomorrow will mark the second anniversary of his inauguration. He was asked to evaluate what has happened since Jan. 20, 1953, and to look into the future "for the next two years and possibly the next six"—a reference to a possible second term.

The President said the foreign situation looks better to him today than two years ago because it shows signs of more stability. Then, gravely, he added that this does not mean the situation overseas is rosy.

He spoke with obvious pleasure over the end of the Korean War and the disappearance of crisis in Iran, Egypt, Trieste, Guatemala, and Western Europe.

He spoke with more enthusiasm about the nation's economic health, saying the country faces the pleasant prospect of a continuing expanding economy with an industrial situation reflecting the confidence of the people.

Domestically, he said, the Administration had given the country a farm program which brought production and marketing into more realistic balance and an unprecedented peacetime tax reduction last year.

He acknowledged that his fiscal 1956 budget shows an estimated $2,400,000,000 deficit. But he took pride in the fact that since he took office government spending has been trimmed from $81 billions to the projected $62 billions for fiscal 1956.

List Preferences

Rushes must turn in a list of the three fraternities they are interested in pledging to the Activities Office by noon today, according to Robert S. Martin, associate dean of students.

Bids may be picked up and accepted or rejected in Room 106 between 1:30 and 4 p. m. tomorrow, Martin said.

Visit ROTC Unit

A liaison team from Headquarters Air Force ROTC, Montgomery, Ala., comprised of Col. Charles F. Densford and Lt. Col. Edgar M. Sliney, will visit the SJS AFROTC unit tomorrow.

The visiting officers will inspect classrooms for calibre of instruction, interview cadets and investigate any problems that might exist.

Club Barn Dance

Blue jeans 'n' cottons will be the dress for Newman Club's barn dance Saturday night at Newman Hall.

Fee to the dance is 50 cents for couples and 85 cents per stag according to Bobbie Smith, publicity chairman.

The dance is scheduled to begin at 8:30 p. m.

Foreign Students Hold Tea Friday

The Speech and English classes of foreign students will hold a tea tomorrow morning from 8:30 to 10:30 o'clock at 246 S. 8th St.

To be held each Friday, the teas are financed by the foreign students of SJS and are open to the student body. They will offer students the opportunity to become better acquainted.

Phillip Persky, adviser to international students, also reminds all foreign students here on visas to check with him before paying Federal Income Tax.

CSTA To Meet, Feature Speaker

A meeting of the California Student Teachers Association will be held this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in Room 118 of the Engineering Building, according to Nancy Cowan, publicity chairman.

Dr. Charles Hamilton, state adviser of CSTA will be the guest speaker. A group of students from Stanford also will be guests at today's meeting.

Pictures for the La Torre will be taken at the meeting, so all members are urged to attend. Refreshments will be served.

Delegates Study Service Education

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 19 (UP)—Representatives of 30 western colleges and western military leaders met today to study ways of bringing education to men in the services.

The conference was sponsored by San Francisco State College and the Air Force. Col. Harry C. Eckhoff, Director of the Air Defense Command's Personnel Services, pointed up the problem when the group convened yesterday.

He said 50 per cent of the officers in the Air Force have not graduated from college.

Vets Scapegoats

Dear Thrust and Parry:

Now that the fighting has stopped and the veterans are more numerous than glorious, I suppose they will be the scapegoat for everything that doesn't go well.

As far as figures go, 65 out of 100 doesn't sound so bad to me. What percent of the pledges already received in the blood drive are veterans? I'll wager that figure will not be so bad, either.

Even if the veterans haven't responded as well as they should, why should they be the only ones to remember? A lot of them would probably like to forget.

I don't think the veteran should be put on a pedestal and I don't think he should sit back and let the world revolve around him. He should share the responsibility of living with everyone.

Tell him to "get the lead out" and get busy but please don't single him out and accuse him of forgetting because I don't think he has.

L. T. ASB-6320

Don't Remember

Thrust and Parry,

To: B. N.

We are not surprised to read your editorial, "Time dulls memories," of Jan. 18. For instance, we don't remember being asked to give blood yet!

To quote your article, "...to date, only 85 of the thousand-plus veterans at SJS have signed pledges for the Jan. 24 bloodmobile session." Had you bothered to inquire the number of vets who have been asked for blood "to date", your figures might not be the same. We wonder how our standings compare with those of other un-organized campus groups, percentage-wise, at the end of the drive.

If you insist on berating the vets, have you considered putting those editorials on the back page where the blood-drive articles have been this quarter?

To our way of thinking, proper attendance is achieved by front page articles, not by bottom drawer stuff; and cooperation is achieved by a fair approach.

No Violation Charge

Dear Thrust and Parry,

In the interest of keeping the record straight concerning the matter of charges against Alpha Phi Omega and the Class of 1957 that were discussed at court Tuesday, it must be understood that these two organizations were not charged with failing to get permission before placing advertising on campus.

The rules requiring this permission were drawn by the Student Affairs Board and given the power of law by the Activities Evaluation Committee.

The charges that were filed against Alpha Phi Omega and the Class of '57, that of violating Art. VI, Sec. 25, clause 3 of the ASB by-laws, were challenged by these organizations on the grounds that the clause in question explained the power of the ASB, and were not the rules governing campus advertising.

With this contention, they moved for dismissal. The court ruled that the clause was virtually incapable of being violated by anyone but the SAB itself, and therefore dismissed charges.

The actual charges of violating the Campus Advertising Code were never brought into court. The issue of whether or not the defendant organizations had violated this code could not be considered, inasmuch as the court is limited to hearing only those charges brought before it.

This letter is not intended to reflect upon the reporting of the Spartan Daily, but is an attempt to clear up a fairly complicated issue.

Religion Week Begins Jan. 30

In what ways is your religion similar to that of others? In what ways does it differ?

One phase of the coming Religion in Life Week, scheduled to begin on Jan. 30, is especially devoted to answering these questions. Eight worship services will be held during the week to familiarize students with the creeds and heritages of representative churches. Each of these services will be open to all students and faculty members and will be presented by a different church or temple, according to Connie Groppe, chairman of the worship services committee.

Daily 7:45 a. m. services will begin on Monday of Religion in Life Week with a Lutheran service led by Pastor Otto Bremer. On Tuesday, students are invited to attend a Latter Day Saints worship service. A Buddhist ceremony will be presented Wednesday.

The Rev. Dan Lion will lead a Unitarian service Thursday morning. Catholic mass, led by Father Duryea, will be held Friday.

Evening religious presentations will commence Wednesday night with a Methodist worship service led by the Rev. Robert W. Moon. Christian Science services are scheduled for Thursday evening, and a Jewish Sabbath ceremony, led by Rabbi Willi Kaeltner, will be presented Friday afternoon.

All services, except the Catholic Mass, will be held in the College Memorial Chapel. Catholic services will be conducted at Newman Hall.

Solons Propose Training Center

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 19 (UP) The Senate Interim Committee on rehabilitation today recommended completion of plans for a rehabilitation center at UCLA.

The legislature appropriated $80,000 in 1953 for preliminary plans of the center.

Sen. James McBride, chairman of the committee, introduced earlier this session bills to increase the amount the state pays to educate severely retarded children to $450 per year per pupil. The committee report said only 650 of the state's 5000 retarded children now are attending school.

The UCLA rehabilitation center would help train a backlog of 150,000 severely handicapped persons, McBride's committee report said.

Accountants Meet

The next meeting of Alpha Eta Sigma, accounting society, for the election of new officers, will be held Feb. 3, announced Gloria Lukas, second vice president. Members are urged to contact Miss Lukas to sign up for La Torre pictures.

At the last meeting, the accountants discussed the prospect for a field trip. They also viewed a movie on Permanente Cement Co. and slides on Mexico.

Student Y Exhibit

The Student Y already has requested display space for Religion in Life Week, beginning Jan. 30, according to Miss Maude Coleman, reader services librarian.

At present the library is exhibiting printing procedures, history and examples in observance of National Printing Week. The exhibits downstairs are the work of the Industrial Arts Department.

During the last six years, there have been approximately one million more births in the U.S. each year than the average during the preceding 10 years.

Jack Fink Seeks Quartet Members

Think you'd like to play chamber music in a string quartet—just for the fun of it?

Jack E. Fink, assistant professor of English, plays violin—for fun. And he's looking for one or more informal groups, each quartet to meet weekly or so, to explore chamber music literature. If interested in participating in an informal session on a mutual-learning basis, contact Dr. Fink in Room H-34U or call his home at Davenport 5-0607.

But remember, the personable professor cautions—it's just for fun.

Teacher Positions

Teaching candidates interested in teaching in the city of Sacramento should check at the Placement Office, Room 100, for information, according to Miss Doris K. Robinson, director of teacher placement.

Those interested in out of town teaching positions should also get in touch with the Placement Office, Miss Robinson said.

Magic Helps In Fire Talk

K. Thomas Call, who combines magic with his lectures on fire prevention, will appear in Morris Daley auditorium Wednesday evening, Jan. 26, at 7 o'clock with his show "Play For Your Life."

The program is the first of two demonstrations to be presented as part of the Public Safety program, according to James M. Craig, public safety lecturer. The second demonstration will be given by the San Jose Fire Department in back of the old Student Y building on Feb. 8.

"Play For Your Life" shows by a scale model on stage how a fire at night can catch a family unprepared, and what to do when fire occurs. Call uses his talent in magic to help his audiences remember the principles of fire protection about which he lectures.

Thirty-six per cent of the students at Haverford College are receiving scholarships aid, largest percentage in the 120 years of the oldest Quaker college.

Poytress Tells India Problems In Tuesday Talk Before IRC

William H. Poytress, professor of economics, outlined some of the problems facing Nehru's Five-Year Plan for the stabilization of India's economy in a lecture before the International Relations Club Tuesday night.

"Nehru's biggest problem," said Poytress, "is to get the large land holders of India to go along with his program of Industrialization. These landowners definitely do not favor the program and are stopping the efforts of the state governments at every opportunity."

"In fact," he said, "there are certain elements within Nehru's government which are similar to those which sold out China."

Poytress appeared at the IRC meeting to give Model United Nations delegates an insight into the economic situation in India today. He began by introducing the members to some of the aspects of a planning program as a whole and continued by describing the aims and present outcomes of the Five-Year Plan.

Nehru's plan which stresses both a short range and long range aspect first is to rehabilitate the country as much as possible agriculturally and then, as the situation necessitates, create a system of piecemeal nationalization of industry.

"The economy is a guided one," said Poytress. "It is not dictated in the sense that Russia's is, but is one to be guided almost by natural growth."

Spartans Topple Record; Prepare For Loyola Game

Having eclipsed a Spartan team record Tuesday night, the San Jose State five prepares to invade Los Angeles tomorrow night to meet the strong Loyola Lions.

In the Spartans' hassle with the Fresno State Bulldogs, SJS cagers connected on 33 free throws to better the old mark of 27 which was set against Brigham Young in 1947.

The Spartans missed only nine attempts Tuesday for a 78.3 percentage for the night. The total of 42 foul shot attempts fell one short of tying the school record in that department.

Tomorrow night's game will be a stern test for the Spartans. In Loyola's opening game of the season, the Lions stopped the USC Trojans, defending champions of the Pacific Coast Conference.

The Lions' scoring is sparked by Bob Cox, their 6 ft. 5 in. center, and Lisle Smith, a play-making guard. Lion Coach Bill Donovan calls Smith the clutch player who makes the team's offense work.
